

Dear Jane John,

9th July 2022

I am writing to you today to offer you the chance of giving your point of view on my YouTube channel.

I have made this offer many times before but I feel that given some of the comments that have been left it would be a good idea for you to share what your version of events is.

Until now you have been very selective with the truth and I have shown you to be untruthful in the videos that I have published.

If you want to give your point of view on my channel all you have to do is get in touch, my email address is alandtait@gmail.com.

If you would prefer to talk with Mr Ben Emlyn-Jones and appear in his podcast he is happy to arrange an interview with you, his email address is bennyjay74@gmx.co.uk.

Alternatively, you could just use a voice recorder to record what you have to say and send me it as a mp3.

In this way you can have your say without having to reply to any questions.

I enclose a copy of a letter you once sent me, it was that letter that gave me the idea of writing to you

Yours sincerely

Alan Tait
