Dear Mr Tait,

Re: Data Protection Act 2018 – Subject Access Application

I acknowledge receipt of the Subject Access Request relating to you, received into the Data Protection Department on the 10th July 2018 in which you request access to information, which may or may not be held about you on Police Systems.

Within your SAR you requested any information relating to complaint(s) made against you during the last year (2017-2018) and specifically to a complaint which led to two Officers attending your home address.

I have conducted an extensive search across our systems and am unable to find any data relating to your request. All search results have resulted in no information held or recorded.

If you wish to discuss my findings further, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, there is a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner if you are dissatisfied with the decision made in relation to your request. The address for the Information Commissioner is:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
CHESHIRE
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely
